

Armed Forces Families Foundation

Dear AFFF Partners,

Summer is coming to a close, but the Armed Forces Families Foundation has made the most of it! The AFFF has been working hard to start and complete projects that will greatly benefit military families across the Southeast for many years to come. And we have many more to come this fall! Read on for updates.

Completed Projects:

- Camp McCrady Training Center USO Renovation (Columbia, SC) – September 13
- Technology Upgrades at the Hampton Roads and Central Virginia USO Centers (Norfolk, VA) – September 17
- Haley VA Hospital Day Room Project (Tampa, FL) – September 25
- W.G. Hefner VA Medical Center Bowling Alley Renovation (Charlotte, NC) – September 30

Projects in the Works:

- Charles George VA Center Healing Garden and Rooftop Solace (Asheville, NC)
- NAS Jacksonville Youth Exercise and Garden Equipment Project (Jacksonville, FL)
- West Palm VA Medical Center Community Garden (West Palm, FL)
- Jacksonville University Military Support Room (Jacksonville, FL)
- Moody Air Force Base Family Housing Game Room (Tallahassee, FL)

Upcoming Projects:

- Armed Forces Veterans Retirement Home Putting Green and Swings (Gulfport, MS)
- MacDill Air Force Base Playground Project (Tampa, FL)
- Miami Veterans Center Relaxation Room Renovation (Miami, FL)
- US Army Garrison Infant Care and Parent Center Renovation (Miami, FL)

And great news for 2014. There are already several projects lined up for 2014. These projects are scheduled to begin after our 2013 Freedom Bells Fundraiser in December:

- Biloxi VA Hospital Putting Green Project (Biloxi, MS)
- 7th Special Forces Pavilion Construction Project (Pensacola, FL)
- Army YMCA (Nashville, TN)

Over the summer the AFFF has been involved in some wonderful community events including volunteering at the 33rd National Veterans Wheelchair Games. We were able to donate 100 meals to volunteers at the event. Additionally, we were able to donate children's bicycles to military families at the 2013 Pizza Hut and Taco Bell RGM Conferences in Atlanta, Raleigh-Durham, Jacksonville, Orlando, and Greenville.

Each and every project holds special meaning to those involved and all projects are completed to thank and give back to our military service members and their families for their time, service, and sacrifice.

Sincerely,

Nick Peters, Managing Director

Brian Goldstein, John Wright & Thaddeus Foster, Board Members &
Your Armed Forces Families Team!
